ШЛЯХОВА В.А., ПАРАХИНА А.В., АНГЛИЙСКИЙ ЯЗЫК: Учебное пособие. Ч III. - М.: МГИУ, 1998, - 216 с. Ил.

В третьей книге для самостоятельного изучения английского языка в системе дистанционного обучения рассматриваются грамматические конструкции, составляющие так называемое "ядро" языка. Это инфинитивные и причастные обороты, герундий, согласование времен, сослагательное наклонение, а также явление конверсии, многозначность слов, глаголы с послелогами, предлоги и т.д. В книгу включены тексты об учебе, покупках, переписке и почте, переговорах по телефону. В текстах о США даются краткие сведения об истории страны, ее городах, национальных праздниках.

Пособие состоит из 8 уроков-блоков, рассчитанных на один семестр самостоятельной работы. К книге прилагается аудиозапись.

Подготовлено к печати на кафедре "Иностранные языки"

Методические рекомендации

Основная задача третьего этапа обучения (третьего семестра)- завершение изучения тех грамматических конструкций, которые составляют так называемое "ядро" языка и без знания которых нельзя понять содержание текста и переводить с английского языка на русский. Это инфинитивные и причастные обороты, герундий, согласование времен, сослагательное наклонение, такие явления, как конверсия, многозначность слов, глаголы с послелогами, предлоги и т.д. В учебном пособии представлена лексика в таких ситуациях, как получение образования, на почте, написание письма, переговоры по телефону, покупки. Для знакомства с одной из англоязычных стран предложены тексты о США, в которых даются краткие сведения об истории страны, ее городах, национальных праздниках. Пособие включает в себя 8 уроков-блоков, рассчитанных на один 1 семестр самостоятельной работы. Каждый урок Вы прорабатываете в зависимости от своей подготовки и времени, которым Вы располагаете.

Последовательность работы определяется строгим методическим построением урока:

1. Знакомство с грамматическим явлением и последовательное выполнение всех упражнений, с тем чтобы четко усвоить грамматические правила.

2. Выполнение в письменной или устной форме всех упражнений, данных перед текстом (предтекстовые упражнения), которые включают в себя новую лексику текстового материала. Выполнение этих упражнений позволит Вам быстро и легко перевести текст на русский язык, а также обеспечит его понимание при прослушивании с аудио-кассеты. Тексты, записанные на аудиокассету обозначены знаком .

3. Прослушивание, затем чтение и перевод текста. Постарайтесь имитировать эталонную запись.

4. Выполнение послетекстовых упражнений после того, как Вы хорошо разобрались в тексте и он Вам понятен. Послетекстовые упражнения направлены на закрепление лексико-грамматического материала урока и выработку умения автоматического употребления этого материала в собственной речи.

5. Работа над диалогами направлена на развитие навыков устной речи. Диалоги следует прослушивать несколько раз, чтобы добиться не только их понимания на слух, но и умения строить свои высказывания, задавать вопросы.

В конце каждого урока перечислены вопросы для самоконтроля грамматических правил, и дан тест с ключом, с тем чтобы Вы проверили правильность усвоенного Вами грамматического материала. Знание лексики можно проверять с помощью поурочного словаря в конце каждого урока.

Типовая контрольная работа имеет целью проверку Ваших навыков и умений читать, понимать и переводить текст (с использованием словаря или без него), активно использовать лексический минимум в соответствующих ситуациях.

В процессе самостоятельной работы рекомендуем пользоваться:

1) грамматическим справочником, представленным в таблицах в конце учебного пособия;

2) списком наиболее употребительных союзов, предлогов и наречий в английском языке;

3) списком слов и выражений, необходимых для общении в реальной жизни.

В книге имеется разговорник на разные темы, записанный на аудиокассету. Авторы предлагают следующую последовательность работы над разговорником: прочтите диалог, пользуясь русским переводом, представленным слева от английского текста. В процессе чтения составьте список слов и выражений, которые Вам встречались впервые. Надеемся, он будет небольшим. Затем приступайте к прослушиванию диалогов, имея перед собой данный текстовой материал, и только когда понимание диалогов не будет вызывать затруднений, приступайте к активному их усвоению (задавайте вопросы, отвечайте на них, пересказывайте диалог, работайте в качестве переводчика).

Надеемся, что изучать английский язык интересно. Продолжайте совершенствовать его.

Успеха Вам!

Авторы

Инфинитив имеет следующие формы:

| | Active | Passive | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Indefinite | to askto write | to be askedto be written | Называет действие, относя его к настоящему или к будущему. |
| Perfect | to have askedto have written | to have been askedto have been written | Называет действие, относя его к прошлому. |
| Continuous | to be askingto be writing | - | Называет действие, рассматриваемое в процессе его развертывания. |
| Perfect Continuous | to have been askingto have been writing | - | Называет действие, рассматривая его как начавшееся в прошлом и все еще продолжающееся. |

Функции инфинитива в предложении и перевод

| Функция | Перевод |
|---|---|
| 1. Подлежащее.To read books is useful.To smoke is bad for health. | Существительное или неопределенная форма глагола.Чтение (читать) книг(и) полезно.Курение (курить) вредно для здоровья. |

|---|---|
| 2. Дополнение.I want to read this book. | Неопределенная форма глагола.Я хочу прочитать эту книгу. |
| 3. Часть составного сказуемого.Our task is to speak English. | Неопределенная форма глагола.Наша задача - говорить по-английски. |
| 4. Определение.A thermometer is an instrument to show the temperature.The text to be translated is very interesting. | Глагол в настоящем или будущем времени, или с модальным значением определительного придаточного предложения.Термометр - это прибор, который показывает (должен показывать) температуру.Текст, который (будет) нужно перевести, очень интересный. |
| 5. Обстоятельство.We went to the station to meet them. | Существительное с предлогом или неопределенная форма глагола с союзами "чтобы", "для того чтобы"Мы поехали на станцию, (для того) чтобы встретить их (для встречи с ними). |

Примечание 1:После безличных оборотов типа it is possible, it is useful, it is difficult, it is necessary инфинитив выполняет функцию подлежащего.

Например: It is useful to read books.
Читать книги полезно.
It is bad for health to smoke.
Курить вредно для здоровья.
It is difficult to translate without a dictionary.
Трудно переводить без словаря.

Примечание 2:Инфинитив в функции определения после слов The first, the second, the last и т.д. переводится на русский язык глаголом в личной форме в том времени, в котором стоит глагол–сказуемое.

Например: He was the first to translate the text.
Он первым перевел текст.
She will be the last to leave the house.
Она последней уйдет из дома.

Примечание 3: Часто перед инфинитивом в функции обстоятельства цели употребляется союз in order - для того, чтобы.

Например: In order to enter the University you must pass entrance examinations.
Для того, чтобы поступить в Университет, Вы должны сдать вступительные экзамены.
It is necessary to carry out many experiments in order to obtain good results.
Необходимо провести много экспериментов для того, чтобы получить хорошие результаты.

Примечание 4: Инфинитив в функции дополнения, стоящий в Passive Voice, переводится на русский язык придаточным дополнительным предложением.

Например: I want to be met at the station.
Я хочу, чтобы меня встретили на станции.
(Сравните: I want to meet you at the station. Я хочу встретить тебя на станции.)

Text

Distance Education over the World

The distance education over the world has a history more than 100 years long. The very first application was carried out by the University of London in 1836. But the method gained popularity after 1970's.

At the moment many countries like China, Australia, England, Russia, Japan, Spain, the USA and others are using this method, especially in higher education.

The organizations of distance education programs and their capacities are getting larger every day. For example, the Open University of England has more than 80 000 students who are taking more than 140 courses per year. This university has 260 local teaching and 13 regional information centres.

After a series of observations and research work it has been cleared out that the quality of instruction provided in the programs of distance education is not worse than that in traditional higher education.

Nothing like age, place, daily activity and the like serve as limiting factors in open education. Does this mean a compromise in the quality? Certainly not!

Open education has proved its superiorities to the traditional classroom education. One of the superiorities is this: open education has found an effective solution to the problem of qualified teaching staff shortage which is a serious obstacle in traditional classroom education. In open education the best teachers of the country can be called to cooperate, and the advanced technologies in mass media can be used. The second superiority is the lowered cost of education which gives an indisputable advantage to open education over all other systems of education.

In open education, video, television, radio, printed materials and face–to–face education are used only in needed proportions. A dynamic team of administrators and a highly qualified teaching staff are used to realize such a "miracle". The problem to be solved now is how to provide favorable conditions for practical work in this system.

A United System of Distance Education in Russia.

The federal program for a united System of Distance Education (SDE) in Russia has been under development since 1995. SDE provides the part-time and correspondence (existing since 1927) tuition and the integration of various educational structures and the development of a truly democratic system of continuous education for Russia's population that covers the entire territory of the country. This system is a system of education for everyone at any age.

According to the Federal Bureau of employment 2 million specialists need to be retrained in Russia annually.

They have many reasons to change their job profile. The major users of the system of Distance Education can be Russian-speaking people abroad and those for whom the Russian language is the second one. In contrast to the traditional systems Distance Education allows each student to have an individual scheme of education.

After studies at educational institutions of DE, students get diplomas approved and recognized by the state.

The united System of Distance Education in Russia is created as an open system. Russia presents its industrial, technical and educational potential to the world community and invites all countries to equal-right cooperation, one of the most interesting results of which will be the accumulation of mankind's knowledge.

Text

The United States of America

The United States of America is known to have been founded on July 4th, 1776, when thirteen English colonies, which had been established during the previous century and a half, decided that they could no longer regard themselves as subjects to the British Crown.

When George III, King of England and his Government in London ordered the colonists to pay heavy taxes on tea and paper, they revolted and declared themselves independent. The War of Independence is known to have ended in favour of the colonists. Since 1783 the USA has steadily increased its power, and the original thirteen states have now grown to fifty. The development of the United States of America is considered to be interrupted by the Civil War between the Northern and Southern States in the 1860's. The struggle of the American colonies for political and economic freedom from Great Britain activated the anti-slavery movement. Slave revolts were frequent. Slavery became a shame to the American nation.

The problem was not solved even in Congress and the Civil War between the North and the South broke out.

This war is known to be won by the Northerners (or “Yankee”, as they were called) in 1865, and since that time the country has become more and more important.

The USA is a federation of 50 states which was established by the Constitution in 1787. Each state has its own government and its own capital city. The federal government is headed by the President and the Congress consisting of the Senate and the House of Representatives. Washington is the capital of the USA. It is situated on the Potomac River in the District of Columbia.

America lies in the central part of the North American Continent with the Atlantic Ocean to the East, the Pacific Ocean to the West, Canada to the North, and Mexico and the Gulf of Mexico to the South.

The United States covers an area of 3,022,387 square miles and includes fifty states and the District of Columbia, the seat of the national government.

The climate of the USA is various. One can find high mountains and prairies, tropical heat and arctic cold, valleys and deserts because the nation occupies nearly half of the continent. There are industries of every kind. The country is rich in mineral resources. America is a country of roads and cars and is a nation on wheels.

Independence Day

Independence Day is one of the chief holidays of the United States. It was adopted in Philadelphia on July 4, 1776. On that day thirteen colonies sent their delegates to the Congress and the document was approved and signed by the delegates and the president of the Congress.

This document is known as the Declaration of Independence and declared the establishment of the USA. Since then the Fourth of July is always celebrated by the Americans as the anniversary of national independence.

Fireworks, sporting events in honour of the day became parts of the celebrations in most cities of the USA. But state laws prohibit many types of fireworks because the state government is afraid of fires especially in Houston, the hottest city of America.

Alex: Sure. I was sent with a delegation just on the eve (íàêàíóíå) of their Independence Day.

Anna: Sorry, and what date is considered as Independence Day in America?

Alex: They celebrate it on the 4-th of July.

Anna: How do they celebrate the day?

Alex: Oh! Fireworks, sporting events in honor of the day take place in most cities of America.

Anna: And what city have you visited?

Alex: I have visited New-York, Washington and Houston. I have some photos with me.

Anna: Can you show them to me and can you tell me about America in detail?

Alex: Why not! Come to my place on Saturday. Some of our classmates asked me to tell them about America.

Anna: Thanks a lot. I'll come.

Alex: See you later.

Anna: Bye.

Dialogue 2

Teacher: What do you know about the United states of America?

Student: I know that it is the country of roads and cars.

Teacher: Do you know when the USA was founded?

Student: Yes, I do. I know that the USA was founded on July 4, 1776.

Teacher: You are quite right. But how many states were there?

Student: There were 13 states then. Now there are 50 states. That is why (вот почему) the American flag has 13 strips (полос) and 50 stars (звезд).

Teacher: That is very interesting. Do you know any holidays that Americans celebrate?

Student: Sure. They celebrate their Independence Day on the 4-th of July, then they celebrate Memorial Day - May 27-th, and May 12-th is Mother's Day, and of course Christmas.

Teacher: Oh, you know quite a lot about America. How did you know about it?

Student: I've read it in newspapers and some facts I know because I was in America last summer. I'm interested in history of America.

Teacher: That’s good. Next time I'll ask you to tell us about Mother's Day.

XIV. Ответьте на вопросы.

1) What do you say on the New Year's Day?
2) What do you wish your friends and relatives on Christmas?
3) How do you congratulate on one's birthday?

(Many happy returns of the day. Merry Christmas! A happy New Year!

XY. Прочтите о праздниках в США. Скажите (на русском языке), какие праздничные дни отмечают американцы.

1. January 1. It is New Year's Day. People say to each other: Happy New Year!
2. Memorial Day is a U.S. legal holiday to honour those who died defending their country. It is a day to remember and memorialize all those who died defending their country.
3. Independence Day - the 4 of July.
4. Thanksgiving Day (День благодарения) is celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November.
5. Christmas is a great religious holiday. It is celebrated on December 25. It is a custom to stay at home and spend time with one's family.
6. On the second Sunday of May Mother's Day is celebrated. You can forget anniversaries and birthday but to forget Mother's Day is nearly unforgivable.

   Flowers and cards are standard gifts. Think of something special you can do for your mother - clean the house, prepare breakfast, and the most important thing to remember is to tell your mother "I love you".

The War of Independence or the American Bourgeois Revolution (1775-1783)

The rapid development of the British colonies in America in the 18th century gave rise to the so-called "American problem". The French and Indian War was over in 1763. The American colonies helped England in this war. The northern country of Canada now belonged to England and the French were driven out of the fertile western river valleys. George III King of England, wanted to draw the American colonies closer to the mother country[1)]. New laws were passed and the colonists had to pay new high taxes to support England. These post-war decisions stimulated an evergrowing movement of protest which exploded into the War of Independence.

In 1774 thirteen colonies sent their delegates to a Continental Congress in Philadelphia. On July 4, 1776 the delegates signed the document known as the Declaration of Independence, and declared the establishment of the United States of America. Since then July 4 is celebrated by the Americans as a national holiday - Independence Day.

The Continental Congress authorized an American army appointing George Washington its commander. But Britain didn't agree with the Declaration until 1783, when the American colonists won in the War of Independence. So after the years of bitter fighting the United States at last were recognized as a new independent country. George Washington had led the army in its successful fight. He was elected the new country's first president.

Вариант В.

Прочитайте текст, постарайтесь понять его общее содержание, скажите, что явилось причиной Гражданской войны между Севером и рабовладельческим Югом.

The Civil War (1861-1865)

The American Revolution opened a new stage in the transformation from feudalism to capitalism, but it failed to abolish slavery. The struggle of the American colonies for political and economic freedom from Great Britain activated the anti-slavery movement.

Slavery as a source of cheap labour was instituted in America as early as the 1660s. Many poor people came to America to escape political oppression and economic exploitation. They had to work on a master's land for some years as payment for their transportation from Europe. But it was impossible to enslave the entire working population and therefore the enslavement of black Africans became a source of cheap labour available. Negroes brought by force from their African homeland to America were turned to slaves. Almost all of them were in the South where southern planters made them plant and pick the great cotton crops. Cruelty was an integral part of the slave system. Slave revolts were frequent. Slavery became a shame to the American nation. Many people in the North opposed slavery and took part in anti-slavery actions. The problem was not solved even in Congress. The southern states left the Union and the Civil War between the North and the South broke out.

The Civil War greatly affected the course of American history. President Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation which committed the nation to stamp out slavery in the southern states. The American slavery was crushed, the nation was unified. But the fight for Negro rights has not been yet ended.

Text 1

Washington - the Capital of the USA

Washington, the capital of the United States, is situated on the Potomac River in the District of Columbia. The terms Washington and District of Columbia are practically synonymous.

The federal district is a piece of land ten miles square; it is neither north nor south, and it does not belong to any other state, but to all the states. The District is named in honour of Columbus, the discoverer of America.

The capital owes a great deal to the nation's first President, George Washington. Washington took an active part in selecting the site of the District of Columbia and laid the cornerstone of the Capitol Building, where Congress meets. Washington is not the largest city in the United States, as it cannot be compared in size with cities like New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Detroit, and Los Angeles, which have more than a million inhabitants.

In the political sense, however, it is the most important city in the United States.

The centre of the city is the Capitol, with its great Hall of Representatives and Senate Chamber.

Four sections radiate out from the Capitol dividing the District of Columbia into North-East, North-West, South-East, South-West. From the Capitol to the White House runs broad Pennsylvania Avenue about a mile and a half in length. This avenue is used for all processions and parades.

The Capitol is the highest building in Washington, which is known as an American city without skyscrapers.

Washington is today one of the world's most beautiful capitals, not only the centre of the National Government, but also it has become a great cultural, educational and scientific centre, with its museums, art galleries, libraries, institutions, parks and monumental buildings, such as the Washington Monument, the Lincoln Memorial and others.

New York

New York, one of the largest cities of the world, is situated in the natural harbour of the mouth of the Hudson River. In the year 1626 the Dutch Trade Company bought Manhattan Island from the local Indians for twenty-four dollars.

Here the Dutch founded their colony and gave it the name New Amsterdam. Forty years later the English fleet entered the harbour, captured the city and renamed it New York.

At present Manhattan Island is the centre of New York and at the same time the business section.

The 39-storey skyscraper of the United Nations Organization is situated on the bank of the East River. The two narrow side walls of the building have no windows at all. But the front and the back walls are made almost entirely of glass.

New York is considered to be the city of skyscrapers. As a matter of fact, most of the skyscrapers are mainly in the lower part of Manhattan. The highest of them is the Empire State Building. It has 102 storeys and its height is 380 metres. The Empire State Building was constructed in 1931. Not far from the Empire State Building there in an interesting architectural ensemble - Rockefeller Centre. It was built according to a general plan. Rockefeller Centre consists of 15 skyscrapers. Rockefeller Centre houses all kinds of offices, enterprises, theatres and music halls.

The Statue of Liberty greets everybody who comes to New York by sea. Millions of emigrants from all parts of the world cross the ocean, hoping to find a better and happier life, hoping to find liberty.

The National City Bank and other big offices are located in the famous Wall Street.

Broadway is the longest street in the city. It is 29 kilometres long. Many businessmen make money here. They own this main trading street of New York with all its bars, restaurants, music halls, theatres, cinemas and various stores and shops. When it gets dark the lights of the electric advertisements flash out along Broadway.

By eight o'clock in the morning New York streets are crowded with clerks and office employees. When they start work, there is nobody in the streets but those who have no work.

Such is New York at first glance, the largest city with a population of more than 10 million.

Sports and Games

The United States of America is a sport-loving country. Thousands of people, old and young, go in for sports. The most popular games in the USA are baseball and basketball.

A lot of people practise various forms of athletics, such as running, jumping, swimming, rowing and ets. There are many athletic halls and swimming pools in the USA. But in America people prefer open-air games, such as playing golf, tennis, beach volleyball as well as football. It is important to note that they call this game soccer because they play American football the rules of which differ from those of the European football.

As far as England is concerned football, cricket, tennis and golf are the most favourite games. The first world tennis championship took place at Wimbledon in 1877. Now the Wimbledon championships are considered to be the most prestige for tennis players.

Millions of people like to watch the championship on TV. There are all kinds of racing in England: motor-racing, horse-racing, boat-racing, and even dog-racing. But boat-racing between Oxford University and Cambridge University is the most popular. Usually it takes place on the River Thames and a lot of people go there to watch the winner.

And, of course, all know English football fans to be crazy about their teams. Thousands of football fans follow their football teams in order to support them. Sometimes instead of being helpful to the sportsmen they do harmful things and spoil the image of the game.

In our country many people are fond of sports too. Such games as football and ice-hockey are very popular in our country. We are proud of taking part in World Championships and Olympic Games. We are also proud of winning in some kinds of sport.

Sports

Most students of our technical school go in for sport. In winter they skate and ski, and some of them are members of our hockey team. They play hockey very well and often go to other towns to take part in various competitions. Running, jumping, swimming are also very popular with our students, and they have often won first place. They try to keep up their position, and so they train systematically.

This is our gymnasium. The girl doing exercises on the parallel bars is our champion. The girl on the wall bars is training for a competition. The young man doing exercises on the rings once won a second prize. The students have built their own stadium: they play football and volleyball there. Various competitions take place at this stadium. Sport is an essential part of life of our students.

Sports in England

The most popular games in England are cricket in summer and football in winter. Tennis and golf are also very popular; as well as running, jumping, swimming and rowing. Many Englishmen go in for boxing and horse-racing. When they get a really a snowy winter, they skate, ski and toboggan. Sport is an essential part of English life.

Does Travel Broaden the Mind?

Spring coming, many people start to travel. People often hear that travel broadens the mind: if you stay in your own country the whole time, your ideas remain narrow. If you travel, you see new customs, eat new foods, do new things, and come home with a broader mind.

But does this always - or usually happen? My friend who lives in England and had never been anywhere decided to go over to France for a trip. When he returned, I asked him how he liked it. "Terrible", was the answer. "I couldn't get a nice cup of tea anywhere. Thank goodness, I'm back". My friend being angry, I stopped speaking about breakfast and asked him about dinners and suppers. "Oh, the dinners were all right", he said. He found a little restaurant, fish and chips being cooked quite well there. "Sure, not as good as ours. But the breakfasts were terrible, I had fried eggs and chips but it was quite a business to get them. They expected me to eat rolls". He asking them for marmalade, they brought him strawberry jam. “And you know, they insisted that it was marmalade. The trouble is they don’t know English.”

I thought it useless to explain that we borrowed (заимствовали) the word ‘marmalade’ from French, and that it means, in their language, any kind of jam. So I said ‘But didn’t you eat any of the famous French food?’ “What? Me?”, he said. “Of course not! Give me good old English food every time! None of these fancy bits for me!” Obviously travel had not broadened his mind. He went to France and wanted to live there exactly as if he were in England and judged it entirely from his own English viewpoint.

This does not, of course, happen only to Englishmen in France. All nationalities, in all foreign countries, judge what they see, hear, eat and smell according to their own habits and customs. People who are better educated and who have read a lot about foreign countries try to be more adaptable and tolerant. If you want to travel, remember, please, that actual physical contact with things you are not accustomed to is much more difficult, but very useful.

Dear guests! If you want to visit Russia, you need (must obtain) a visa for your entry and stay in the country. The inhabitants of our country are not only very hospitable, but it is also their desire to maintain good relations and friendship with the people of all nations.

"Everything for our guests" is therefore the motto of "Intourist" and other firms offering you all the opportunities for your pleasant stay in the country. Such cities as Moscow, St.Petersburg, which are sung about in many songs are special centres of attraction for art and theatre enthusiasts.

World-famous art treasures in museums, theatres, world - famous parks and palaces, cathedrals and churches, trips by bus or boat into the attractive surroundings are worth seeing.

You can book the trip at a travel agency. You will be offered city tours and sightseeing, trips to the most beautiful regions of the country, visits to old and new cultural or memorial places, tickets for theatres, concerts and other events and many other things - according to your wishes. Hotels offer modern (up-to-date) furnished rooms and apartments, radio and telephone in every room, television on request, every room with a bath or shower. Hotel restaurants with international cuisine, conference and banquet rooms, postal service and travel agency, parking lot and garages (hair-dressing and cosmetic saloons), dance bars, ets.

Perhaps you will say: “I like it, I shall take such a trip” and we say to you “a cordial welcome to our country!”

Grammar

§ 7. Согласование времен

(Sequence of Tenses)

Согласование времен в английском языке имеет место тогда, когда сказуемое главного предложения выражено в прошедшем времени. В этом случае сказуемое придаточного предложения должно также употребляться в одном из прошедших времен.

Сравните:

| Времена сказуемых придаточных предложений не меняются, если сказуемое главного предложения выражено настоящим временем. | | Времена сказуемых придаточных предложений меняются, если сказуемое главного предложения выражено прошедшим временем. | |
|---|---|---|---|
| He says thatОн говорит, что | he knows Englishон знает английскийhe knew Englishон знал английский.he will know English.он будет знать английский. | He said thatОн сказал, что | he knew English.он знает английский.he had known English.он знал английский.he would know English.он будет знать английский |

Запомните:

1. Past Indefinite выражает одновременное действие с действием главного предложения.
2. Past Perfect выражает действие, которое предшествует действию главного предложения.
3. Future in the Past выражает будущее действие с точки зрения прошлого. Вместо вспомогательных глаголов shall и will употребляются should и would.

Правило согласования времен действует при переводе прямой речи в косвенную: 1) повествовательных предложений; 2) общих вопросов; 3) специальных вопросов; 4) повелительного наклонения.

1. Повествовательные предложения.

| Прямая речь | Косвенная речь |
|---|---|
| He said to her, “I study at the University”. Он сказал ей, “Я учусь в университете”. | He told her that he studied at the University. Он сказал ей, что он учится в университете. |
| He said to her, “I studied at the University”. Он сказал ей, “Я учился в университете”. | He told her that he had studied at the University. Он сказал ей, что он учился в университете. |
| He said to her, “I shall study at the University”. Он сказал ей, “Я буду учиться в университете”. | He told her that he would study at the University. Он сказал ей, что он будет учиться в университете. |

Запомните: Вместо глагола to say (to) используется глагол to tell и производятся все соответствующие изменения личных, приятяжательных местоимений, а также место и время действия.

Например:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| this - этот, это | заменяется на | that - тот, та |
| these - эти | заменяется на | those - те |
| now - сейчас | заменяется на | then - тогда |
| here - здесь | заменяется на | there - там |
| to day - сегодня | заменяется на | that day - в тот день |
| yesterday - вчера | заменяется на | the day before - накануне |
| tomorrow - завтра | заменяется на | the next day - на следующий день |
| next week - на следующей неделе | заменяется на | the following week - на следующей неделе |
| ago - тому назад | заменяется на | before - тому назад |

|---|---|
| He said to me, “I translated the text 2 weeks ago.” | He told me that he had translated the text 2 weeks before. |

2. Общие вопросы.

| Прямая речь | Косвенная речь |
|---|---|
| He asked her : ”Do you study English?” | He asked her if she studied English. |
| Он спросил ее: “Ты учишь английский язык?” | Он спросил ее, учит ли она английский язык. |
| He asked her : ”Did you study English yesterday?” | He asked her if she had studied English the day before. |
| Он спросил ее: “Ты учила английский язык вчера?” | Он спросил ее, учила ли она английский язык накануне. |
| He asked her : ”Will you study English tomorrow?” | He asked her if she would study English the next day. |
| Он спросил ее: “Ты будешь учить английский язык завтра?” | Он спросил ее, будет ли она учить английский язык на следующий день. |

Запомните: При переводе общего вопроса в прямой речи в косвенную исчезает вспомогательный глагол и появляется “if”. If в русском языке соответствует частице “ли”.

3. Специальные вопросы.

|---|---|
| He asked her, “Where do you study?” | He asked her, where she studied. |
| Он спросил ее: “Где ты учишься?” | Он спросил ее, где она учится. |
| He asked her, “When did you study?” | He asked her, when she had studied. |

|---|---|
| Он спросил ее: “Когда ты учи-лась?” | Он спросил ее, когда она учи-лась. |
| He asked her, “What will you study?” | He asked her, what she would study. |
| Он спросил ее: “Что ты будешь изучать?” | Он спросил ее, что она будет изучать. |

Запомните: При переводе специального вопроса прямой речи в косвенную исчезает вспомогательный глагол и предложение имеет прямой порядок слов, вопросительные слова становятся союзными словами.

4. Повелительные предложения.

|---|---|
| He told me, “Give me your book!” | He told me to give him my book. |
| Он сказал мне: “Дай мне твою книгу!” | Он сказал мне дать ему мою книгу. |
| He told me, “Don’t open the window!” | He told me not to open the window. |
| Он сказал мне: “Не открывай окно!” | Он сказал мне не открывать окно. |

Запомните: При переводе прямой речи в косвенную глагол в повелительном наклонении заменяется инфинитивом, отрицательная форма образуется добавлением отрицания not (not + Infinitive).

Do you know how to write and to send a letter to England? On the envelope you should write the address in the following order:

1. name, 2. number of flat, 3. number of house, 4. street 5 city, 6. country.

The person who sends the letter writes his address on the back of the envelope. You buy stamps at a post-office.

This is an English pillar-box.

It is usually painted red.

Would you be so kind as to put my letter into the box?

A letter

Dear Kate,

I am happy to write you that now I am a first-year student of the University. I passed all the entrance exams successfully and now attend evening classes and work in the day-time. The first term began on the 1st of September and will last till January. In January we shall have exams in mathematics and chemistry and some tests. This term classes are normally held on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Our University provides favourable conditions for practical work. You know my interest in chemistry and so courses in organic, inorganic, physical and analytical chemistry including considerable experimentation with the use of many modern instruments promise me a lot.

We study English but besides we have optional classes in German and French at elementary and advanced levels. As I am interested in technical translation from English into Russian I attend a course of technical translation.

Our library contains a lot of volumes on different subjects and includes fiction. The laboratory of foreign languages has tape-recorders and a TV set, we spend a lot of time there working at our texts and exercises. Full-time students of the University organized an English students' club, and we are invited to its first meeting.

Every subject is new and interesting, so we attend all lectures and practical studies and have no wish to miss an hour. Would you be so kind as to write me regularly.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Best wishes!

Tanya

The post-office

Every town has a post-office. It sends your letters and postal cards to all parts of the world. The cost of sending a letter is not very high.

If a letter is heavy, you must have it weighed at the post-office. The clerk will tell you how much it will cost. You must buy stamps to put on the letter before mailing it. After you drop your letter into the letter-box, a letter-carrier will take it away to the post-office and from there it is sent to the person addressed.

Sometimes you want to be sure that your letter was received. You must take it to the post-office and have it registered.

Packages and parcels may be sent by the parcel post. Before sending a package, take it to the post-office, have it weighed, and place the right amount of stamps on the package.

It is not safe to send money in a letter. A better way is to send money by postal money-order.

Переведите текст с помощью словаря.

At the post-office, either on the outside wall or inside the building, you will see letter-box openings into which you drop your letters. You will also see red pillar-boxes for the same purpose. In London the openings are often marked LONDON AND ABROAD and COUNTRY. Country here means all places in Great Britain except London; it includes large towns such as Glasgow and Manchester.

Inside a large post-office you will see, over the long counters, notices telling you what kind of business is done below them: POSTAGE STAMPS, PARCELS, TELEGRAMS, PENSIONS, INSURANCE STAMPS, WIRELESS, LICENCES. The post-office does a wide variety of business. You must have a licence for your wireless set and for your car. You can pay for it at the post-office. Old Age Pensions and Family Allowances, and various sorts of National Insurance benefits are paid out there.

Dialogue 1

At the post-office

Miss: (On the telephone) Yes . . . one moment, hold on, please!— Mr. Johnson, Liverpool's on the line.—Box number 4, please!— Well, gentlemen, you are lucky you haven't come during the rush hour when you would have to queue up here. But now I have enough time for you. What would you like?

Winter: Well, miss, there's a letter . . .

M.: Look, the postman is collecting the letters from the pillar-box. Why don't you hand your letter to the postman, sir?

Simon: You see, my friend intends to have his letter registered.

M.: Ah, a registered letter. That's different.—Oh, you've forgotten to print the name and address of the sender on the back of the envelope, sir.

W.: Shall I also write the post-box number below the address of the recipient?

M.: The P.O. Box number? Well, you may.—The counter for poste restante letters is over there, next to the parcel counter, if you are expecting something.

S.: No, miss, we aren't expecting anything. But we want to send this packet to Glasgow. Please make it c.o.d.*

M.: We'll send it c.o.d. to Glasgow.

S.: Now I'd like some stamps and some postcards.

M.: But I can only sell you ordinary postcards, not picture postcards.

W.: Ordinary postcards will do.

M.: By the way, are you a stamp-collector, a philatelist sir? Do you want to buy special stamps or first-day covers?

S.: No, miss. I don't need special stamps or first-day covers.

W.: We need the stamps for postage only.

M.: Then I'll give you a stamp book; it contains a variety of stamps.

W.: Yes, please, give us two stamp books and ten postcards.

M.: Here you are—two stamp books and ten postcards.

*c.o.d. - cash on delivery - наложенным платежом.

Контрольная работа

(Control work)

I. Переведите текст на русский язык, пользуясь словарем.

Do you know how to write a letter?

How to Address an Envelope

| From | To Mr. James |
|---|---|
| W.S. Black | R. Whit |
| Portland, Main | 26 Winter Street |
| | Pairkvill |
| | New York |

The writing on the envelope should be very plain. The name should be written in the middle, so as to leave space for the stamp and post-mark.

The number and name of the street should be written under the name of a person, as in the example above.

The name of the city should be written on the third line, and on the fourth line the state. The state may be spelled in full or the abbreviation may be written.

The stamp should be placed in the upper right-hand corner.

The address of the sender may be written on the back side of the envelope, but it is better to write in the upper left-hand corner, in small letters, the name and address of the sender, so as to secure return of the letter in case of misdirection.

Сокращения: street=st.; Avenue=Ave.; Company=Co.; in care of=c/o (для передачи); and=&

Read and translate these addresses:

| 1. Mr.Robert L.Smith | 2. Miss Mary Brown | 3. Mr. Henry Green |
|---|---|---|
| 18 Summer St | 12 Garden Ave | c/o Black & Co |
| Buffalo | Detroit | Columbus |
| NY | Michigan | Ohio |

II. Выберите соответствующую форму глагола и переведите предложения на русский язык.

1. He said that he (received, receives, had received, would receive) a letter from his parents the day before. 2. He said that she (had gone, goes, went, would go) to the post-office. 3. She wrote in her letter that she (was ill, had been ill, would be ill, is ill) and (did not come, would not come, had not come) to us. 4. The teacher asked the students if they (are, were, had been) ready for the lesson. 5. He asked me what (was written, is written, would be written) in the letter. 6. My brother told me not (to touch, to be touched, to have touched) his new bicycle (велосипед).

Grammar

§ 8. Сослагательное наклонение

(Subjunctive Mood)

Сослагательное наклонение служит для выражения действия не реального, а предполагаемого, желаемого или условного.

В русском языке сослагательное наклонение выражается глаголом в прошедшем времени + "бы" для всех времен (настоящего, прошедшего и будущего). Например: Я помог бы тебе сегодня (вчера, завтра), если у меня было бы время.

В английском языке сказуемое в сослагательном наклонении имеет следующие формы:

1) для настоящего и будущего времени } should / would } + Infinitive (без to)

I should translate the text now (tomorrow).
Я перевел бы текст сегодня (завтра).

2) для прошедшего времени should / would } + Perfect Infinitive (без to)

I should have translated the text yesterday.
Я перевел бы текст вчера.

Употребление сослагательного наклонения

1. После безличных оборотов:
   it is necessary - необходимо, чтобы
   it is important - важно, чтобы
   it is required - требуется, чтобы it is strange - странно, что
   it is doubtful - сомнительно, чтобы
   it is suggested - предполагается, что

Например: It is necessary that you should speak to him about my proposal today. - Необходимо, чтобы ты поговорил бы с ним о моем предложении сегодня. It is doubtful that you would have spoken to him last week. - Сомнительно, чтобы ты говорил с ним на прошлой неделе.

2. В придаточных дополнительных после глаголов- сказуемых:

to suppose - предполагать

to require - требовать

to suggest - предлагать

to desire - желать

to insist - настаивать

to order - приказывать

Например: He suggested that we should go to the theatre. - Он предложил, чтобы мы пошли в театр. I desired you would leave the room. - Я хотел бы, чтобы вы вышли из комнаты.

Запомните: a) Глагол "to be" в сослагательном наклонении имеет форму "were" для всех лиц и чисел (для настоящего или будущего времени).

I wish he were here now. I wish they were here tomorrow. - Мне хотелось бы, чтобы он (они) был(и) здесь сейчас (завтра). (Возможно будут, есть вероятность исполнения желания.)

b) Глагол "to be" имеет форму "had been" для всех лиц и чисел (для прошедшего времени).

I wish he had been here yesterday. I wish they had been here last week. - Мне бы хотелось, чтобы он(и) был(и) бы здесь вчера (на прошлой неделе). Жаль, что их не было вчера здесь. (Нет вероятности исполнения желания.)

§ 9. Условные предложения

(Conditional Sentences)

Употребление сослагательного наклонения

1. В условных предложениях, относящихся к настоящему или будущему времени, сослагательное наклонение имеет следующие формы:

|---|---|
| If he received the telegram, | he would meet the delegation to day. |
| Если бы он получил телеграмму, | Он встретил бы делегацию сегодня. (Есть вероятность совершения действия, что он встретит.) |

2. В условных предложениях, относящихся к прошлому, сослагательное наклонение имеет следующую форму:

|---|---|
| If he had worked hard then, | he would have entered the University last year. |
| Если бы он тогда работал упорно, | он поступил бы в университет в прошлом году. (Действие не совершено - он не поступил, нет вероятности исполнения действия.) |

Примечание: Условные предложения употребляются также и в изъявительном наклонении.

|---|---|
| If he works hard, | he will enter the University. |
| Если он будет работать упорно, | он поступит в университет. (Действие реально.) |

Внимание: В условных предложениях после if вместо Future Indefinite всегда употребляется Present Indefinite.

If I receive a telegram, I shall meet you. - Если я получу телеграмму, я встречу тебя.

Text

Parents and Kids

Good people do not automatically turn into good parents. Contrary to stereotype bad children are not a result of poverty or lack of education. Good parents may neglect their children and these children may get into trouble. Such children come from all segments of society: poor, middle or upper class kids face the same problems. It is wrong to think that upper class parents are good parents and it is the kids' fault they are bad. In this case the parents failed to teach their children how to live in our complex, difficult society. Children need to be taught and poverty or wealth have nothing to do with it. It doesn't matter what you give to your kid, the trouble is how you give it.

What priorities must parents set? It is not good to be rigid with kids. Working parents are likely to describe themselves as happy when they can spend more time with their children. At the same time they generally express positive feelings about their jobs. But what happens at work gets reflected in the home, and it is necessary to understand that fact.

Those parents who try to focus on the family's ability to educate children and to ensure good relations stay strong and healthy. School age is the most stressful time for parents. To reduce such stress it is necessary that parents should be with the children as much as possible. Kids should be first. Parents should set aside their problems and should listen their kids carefully. Let the housework be put aside if it keeps you from spending time with your children and your family. The best parents are people who feel good with their children who know what their kids are doing. There is a good proverb (пословица): "As you sow, you shall mow" ("Что посеешь, то и пожнешь").

Mr. Johnson: Hello, Mary. What's wrong? You look so tired?
Mss. Brown: Hello, John! Oh, I am so tired of life! It's again the problem of parents and children. I'm afraid, I don't understand my son.
He: What happened? Bad news? Did he get into trouble?
She: Oh, no, he didn't. But I want him to pay much more attention to his studies at the University, and he is more interested in pop music and his girl friends.
He: Oh, Mary. Don't worry. It is quite natural for his age to like singing and dancing. Do you remember how much time we spent in dancing clubs when we were young?
She: Of course! I do. I remember everything what happened when I was young and in love with Tom.
He: So, take it easy! And let your son dance and sing when he is tired of studying.
She: Yes, when he is tired of studying, but not instead of studying.

Dialogue 3

Tom: Hello, Mary!
Mary: Hi, Tom. What's the matter with you? You look so sad.

Контрольная работа

(Control Work)

I. Переведите на русский язык с помощью словаря.

Camps keep children out of the street. It is that time of the year when parents want to secure places for their children in a summer camp. If you want to place your child in a sports camp, you should have looked through a lot of advertisements before the Christmas tree was down.

Why is it necessary for working parents to place children in a summer camp? One reason is that working parents need to know that their children will not be tying (привязывать) younger sister to a chair or doing some more rigid things during long summer afternoons while they are at their work. Parents need to know that their children are not sitting on the roof of the house while they are working. At last parents have another long-term goal. They wanted their children to play outdoors, to go in for sports but at the same time they wanted to be sure that their children are headed by good and professional people. Those parents who failed to teach their children to be responsible for making their bed or cleaning their teeth, they also think their children to be taught to do such simple things at a summer camp. Such parents don't talk about these private feelings but they are worried about it. So summer camps do not only keep children out of the street but parents can be sure if the kids are in a summer camp, they will not eat icing sandwiches on the roof of the house and will not get into trouble.
